

Policy Influence

Jinko Solar Co., Ltd. (referred to as "Jinko Solar" or "the Company") maintains a clear understanding of political issues and changes that may affect its business. However, the Company has always adhered to a politically neutral stance and does not actively participate in any form of direct or indirect political donations. From 2021 to 2024, the Company did not make any direct or indirect political contributions.

The Company is a member of multiple trade and industry associations. These membership qualifications enable the Company to engage in pragmatic cooperation with other companies, promote the formation of industry consensus, and help solve issues related to public policies. The Company estimates that its annual expenditure on trade and industry associations accounts for approximately 0.02% of its annual operating income.¹ Correspondingly, the Company's expenditure on trade and industry associations from 2021 to 2024 were as follows:

Operating income (Unit: yuan)	40,569,618,325.47	82,676,076,089.67	118,681,778,521.12	92,471,327,231.09

carbon reduction targets for Scope 1, 2 and 3, and committed to achieving net-zero emissions across the value chain by 2050. These targets have successfully passed the SBTi target validation by the end of 2023.

To gradually achieve net-zero emissions, the Company has formulated short-, medium- and long-term carbon reduction strategies from the perspective of its own operations and value chain, and steadily promoted energy conservation and emission reduction. On this basis, the Company has actively joined trade and industry associations related to energy conservation and emission reduction, and taken the initiative to participate in international exchanges and speaking activities concerning energy conservation and emission reduction, supporting the achievement of the temperature control target of the Paris Agreement through ambitious actions.

To ensure that its actions are aligned with the temperature control target of the Paris Agreement, on the basis that the Company's Brand Center coordinates and manages all actions such as joining trade and industry associations in all operational locations and participating in international exchanges and speaking activities, the ESG Management Department will assist the Brand Center in evaluating the nature of joining associations and participating in activities related to the theme of energy conservation and emission reduction, to confirm that the positions of the associations related to the theme of energy conservation and emission reduction that the Company has joined and the activities related to the theme of energy conservation and emission reduction that the Company has participated in are consistent with the temperature control target of the Paris Agreement. All actions of the Company, such as joining trade and industry association and participating in international exchanges and speaking activities, must go through strict internal approval procedures, including confirmation by senior leaders, approval by leaders of other business lines, confirmation by senior management, etc., to ensure that the procedures are compliant and in line with the Company's mission and vision.

In this process, relying on its own green transformation solutions and rich experience in the technical field, the Company can contribute insights to the formulation of renewable energy consumption policies and technical standards, helping to promote the accelerated cleaning process of global energy-intensive industries .

By regularly reviewing the nature of participation in associations and activities related to energy conservation and emission reduction, as well as the climate and energy policies and position statements publicly released by relevant associations and activities, the Company looks forward to working with industry partners to promote the formulation of climate and energy policies, thereby strongly supporting the temperature control target of the Paris Agreement. If any policy or position is found to deviate from the temperature control target of the Paris Agreement, the Company will actively put forward its own suggestions and conduct communications. In cases where deviations persist after communication, the Company will withdraw from the relevant associations or activities as appropriate.

晶科能源股份有限公司（以下简称“晶科能源”“本公司”）对可能影响本公司业务的政治问题和变化保持着清醒的认识，但本公司始终秉承政治中立的立场，不主动参与任何形式的直接或间接政治捐献。2021-2024 年，本公司不存在任何直接或间接的政治捐款。
